OFFICER INVOLVED SHOOTING (NON-HIT)
TWIN TOWERS CUSTODY FACILITY

IAB: #SH2121419
SAN BERNARDINO COUNTY SHERIFF'S CASE: #110408813

On June 21, 2004. at approximately 0110 hours, Deputy Robert Thoms of Twin Towers Correctional Facility was involved in an off-duty shooting at his home in the City of Alta Loma.

Deputy Thoms was in bed and had just fallen asleep when he heard the alarm on his car "chirp." Deputy Thoms armed himself with his Smith & Wesson, 2 ½ inch revolver and went downstairs to investigate. Deputy Thoms looked out his kitchen window and saw a male (Suspect #1) standing near a vehicle parked in the street, east of his home. He then saw that the drivers door to his (Thoms) vehicle was open. Deputy Thoms vehicle was parked in his driveway, facing the garage door of his home. The passenger's side door of his vehicle was closest to the front entry door of his home (Refer to Photograph, Exhibit #D).

Deputy Thoms went outside to his driveway to investigate further. When Deputy Thoms got to his driveway, near the front of his vehicle, he yelled at the suspect that was standing next to the suspect vehicle. After Deputy Thoms yelled, a second suspect (Suspect #2) exited the drivers side of Deputy Thoms' vehicle and began to run to the suspect vehicle. Deputy Thoms realized that his vehicle was just "broken into" (burglarized) and he remembered that he had left his Beretta (Duty Weapon) locked inside.

Deputy Thoms yelled at the suspects again and the second suspect stopped near the passengers door of the suspect vehicle. The second suspect then turned and faced Deputy Thoms. Deputy Thoms feared that the second suspect had armed himself with his (Thoms') Beretta and was going to shoot him. Fearing for his life, Deputy Thoms fired three rounds at the second suspect, from his Smith & Wesson Model #66, 357 Magnum revolver. Both suspects then entered the suspect vehicle and fled eastbound on Mount Cambridge Court, out of sight. Deputy Thoms immediately went inside his home and called the San Bernardino County Sheriff's Department. He advised them that his vehicle had just been burglarized and he believed the suspects stole his Beretta. Deputy [redacted] (#[redacted]) responded and handled the incident. A search of the area for the suspects or their vehicle was conducted, but neither was located.

It is unknown if either suspect was struck by gunfire. Deputy Thoms was not injured in the incident. A safety check of the area revealed no injured citizens and no damaged property was found. Deputy Thoms' Beretta was found and recovered by Deputy [redacted] from the grassy area, approximately ten feet outside the drivers door of Deputy Thoms' vehicle.
